
Call for Artists

WeTilt is an online art collective platform based in Rome looking for artists to exhibit and sell their artwork on our website that will be launched in August 2019.

This website has been created to promote museum quality prints from independent artists encouraging their artistic value while engaging the public to explore and collect artworks. We are looking for amateur and professional independent artists and photographers working all over the world to join our collective.

How to apply?

There is not a specific theme for this call and all artworks will be taken into consideration by WeTilt.

Participating in the call requires artists to submit their work to our website www.wetilt.com

Select the artworks you intend to exhibit and sell on the website. Please consider that all artworks need to be fit for print.

We need a minimum of 5 artworks and a maximum of 10 artworks to work on the selection. If you are selected, your artworks will be uploaded to the website under your personal profile and featured collections.

The artworks can be displayed and sold under two different edition categories: Open Edition & Limited Edition.

WeTilt will exhibit, promote and print the artworks, issue a certificate of authenticity, process and ship the orders to the collectors and will handle all customer support, including refunds and returns.

About Us

In this new age of technology making yourself stand out can feel near-impossible. And with art scenes hidden from the masses, it's only by knowing the right person or hitting the right algorithm that an independent artist can monetize their skills, right? Well, we at WeTilt feel differently. Based in Rome, Italy, we are a young team of art-lovers who are striving to give 'Agency' back to the independent artist through a platform that exposes their work to the art community and wider public.

We understand that creating takes time and the tools available today for artists wanting to share their work can be demanding which, ultimately, causes the art to suffer. With this in mind we hope to take a different approach to exhibiting art by making a space that while elegant, remains simple and intuitive. Furthermore, we will work closely with our artists; ensuring that their work is aptly represented in both the physical and digital realms.

As alluded: not only will our artists get to have their work displayed in exhibitions online, but also in our live pop-up exhibitions where pieces will be carefully selected and displayed alongside those of other artists from around the world. Our mission is to make a career in art possible for all and an important step towards this is our outreach program which aims to give artists in war-torn and impoverished countries the ability to make earnings from their work as well.

In short WeTilt is a compendium of art with freedom of opportunity.

WeTilt collective was created to spread ideas, talent and artistic expression of independent artists across the world.
